

ECMI workshop on
'Anti-Semitism in Romania and Moldova:
Historical Legacies, Contemporary Challenges'
Flensburg, 1-2 October 2015

Programme

Day 1 (Thursday, 1 October 2015)
2:00-2:30pm:	Welcome &amp; Introduction Raul Cârstocea (ECMI) Irina Marin (Stanley Burton Centre for Holocaust and Genocide Studies, University of Leicester, UK)
2:30-4:00pm:	Strangers and Foreigners during the Great Peasant Uprising of 1907 In Romania Irina Marin (Stanley Burton Centre for Holocaust and Genocide Studies, University of Leicester, UK) A question of progress, civilization and democracy: The international debate about the Romanian "Jewish question" during World War I Elisabeth Weber (Zentrum für Antisemitismusforschung der TU Berlin, Germany)
4:00-4:30pm:	Coffee Break
4:30-6:00pm:	Class and nationality in the countryside? Indifference, democracy and rural politics during the interwar period Dan Brett (The Open University, UK) Between the lines: ethnicity and political options during the Communist underground in Romania (1921-1944) Corina Doboş (University of Bucharest, Romania)
6:00pm:	End of day 1
7:00pm:	Dinner

Day 2 (Friday, 2 October 2015)
9:30-11:00am:	Economic Romanianizing and Anti-Semitism in Satu Mare in the 1930s Anders Blomqvist (Södertörn University, Sweden) The legacy of the far right. A cross border comparison of the historical legacies of Romanian and Hungarian fascism and their effects on contemporary anti-Semitism Áron Szele (Romanian Cultural Institute, Romania)
11:00-11:30am:	Coffee Break
11:30am-1.00pm:	The Complicated Issue of Memory and Responsibility in Post-Communist Romania. From the Denial of the Romanian Holocaust to the "anti-Legionary" Law Irina Nastasă-Matei (University of Bucharest, Romania) "Half-Crime &amp; Half-Business": Patterns in Romania's Holocaust, the Roma and Today's Refugees Crises Cosmina Paul (Ministry of Education, Government of Romania)
1:00-2:00pm:	Lunch
2:00-3:00pm:	Roundtable discussion
3:00pm:	End of day 2/ Departures