

Minority Identity in the Digital Age

Expert Workshop

Day 1

- 15.00 - 15.15 Welcome Remarks and Introduction
- 15.15 -16.00 The international human rights framework on protecting minorities from hate speech in the digital age - Sejal Parmar (Central European University/Hungary)
- 16.00 -16.45 TBA Aydan Huseynova / Craig Willis (ECMI/Germany)
- 16.45 -17.00 Coffee Break
- 17.00 - 17.45 Crossing Territories Passing through the Media: A computational analysis of digital news at the height of the refugee crisis - Pasko Bilic (Institute for Development and International Relations/ Croatia)
- 17.45 -18.30 Best practices in research data management with special focus on minority languages - Alex Koenig (EURAC/Italy)
- 18.45 - Dinner at Columbus (Hotel Hafen)

Minority Identity in the Digital Age

Expert Workshop

Day 2

- 09.00 - 09.45 How desirable is media regulation as a tool for combatting hate speech? - Eric Heinze (Queen Mary London/ UK)
- 09.45 - 10.30 A red line for everyday hate speech on social media? - Paul Iganski (University of Lancaster/UK)
- 10.30- 11.15 Citizenship, Migration and the Digital Promise - Mariangela Veikou (Tilburg University/ The Netherlands)
- 11.15 - 11.30 Coffee Break
- 11.30 - 12.15 Governing Hate: Facebook and the Productivity of Hate Speech/Eugenia Siapera (University College Dublin/ Ireland) (skype)
- 12.15 - 13.15 Lunch Break
- 13.15 - 14.00 Minority Protection in Private Communication Orders: The case of social networks- Matthias Kettermann (Hans Bredow Institut Hamburg/Germany) (skype)
- 14.00 -14.45 Digital Citizenship by law – Opportunities and Challenges- Gitte Stald (IT University of Copenhagen /Denmark)
- 14.45 -15.15 Print or Digital? How minorities try to make their voice heard/Sergiusz Bober (ECMI)/Gwyn Nissen (Nordschleswiger)
- 15.15 -16.00 Media Ethnography, identity and emotion - Joke Hermes (University of Amsterdam /The Netherlands)
- 16.00 - 16.15 Concluding Remarks